

Action Plan – IFLA Social Science Libraries Section – Division 1

August 2012 - August 2013

Mission: Social Science Libraries Section supports the work of libraries and librarians that support research and practice in the broad domain of the Social Sciences.

1. Organize a conference program for the 2013 IFLA/WLIC in Singapore entitled “Libraries and Social Movements: A Force for Change”. This program was developed taking into consideration both the presidential theme, “Libraries a Force for Change,” as well as the congress theme, “Future Libraries, Infinite Possibilities.”
 - a. Standing Committee chair will work with committee members to solicit and select papers for the 2013 program.
 - b. Relates to Key Initiative 3 and partially to Key Initiative 4.
1. Finalize editing and publishing the book of papers related to the section’s 2011 satellite conference in Havana, Cuba.
 - a. Lynne Rudasill and Maria-Elena Dorta-Duque will continue their work with the authors and publisher of the edited volume and will have it published this year.
 - b. Related to Key Initiatives 1 & 5.
2. Recruit new section members, as two members will be rolling off at the end of 2013 term.
 - a. Chair will work with section members to identify potential standing committee members and appoint them.
 - b. Related to Key Initiative 2
3. Continue growing SIG RELININDIAL and begin planning for a 2014 SIG (RELINDIAL) sponsored satellite conference in Paris, France.
 - a. SIG Convener, Odile Dupont, in coordination with the Social Science Libraries Section and IFLA, will begin to coordinate and plan a satellite conference for 2014 in Paris, France.
 - b. Relates to Key Initiative 3

Submitted by: Liz Cooper, Chair, Social Science Libraries Standing Committee