Participated in August 2022 online zoom meeting [NB: Richard is a newly co-opted member]

2. Please indicate any changes to Committee membership during 2021-2022

Annie Tam resigned, and we added Sarah Evans as a casual vacancy to replace her. We also added two co-opted members for regional representation. Ludy Rueda, a Mexican librarian in Fort Collins, is already heavily engaged in including Latin American librarians in our work. Richard Wanjohi from Kenya, will be an excellent addition in due course.

9. Standing/SIG Committee Meetings

3. Please provide information about your 2021-22 Standing Committee Meetings:

6. Please comment on any communication or partnerships outside of your own Standing Committee

In terms of communication:

Biannual newsletters with article contributions from both section members and other persons in the library field around the world. Continuous updates on the website, mailing list and Facebook about the section's activities and achievements.

Other Partnerships: We had a successful collaboration with ENSULIB co-hosting a session at WLIC, which we hope will result in additional outputs and more collaborations.

Our Section will be collaborating with Stephen Wyber on a UNESCO lifelong learning project, and we are forming a sub-committee.

Also, we:

Contributed to IFLA's Statement on Online Storytimes

12. Additional Information

Did you receive Professional Council funding for 2021-2022?

Yes

How does the Unit plan to measure the impact of the funded output?

Guidelines: We would love to be able to measure downloads of the Guidelines, the infographic, and the World Through Picture Books (WTPB) catalog, but we are not able to. Please advise if HQ has changed the policy on this!

Handed out 200 leaflets (Guidelines) during WLIC

Handed out 100 flyers (WTPB) during WLIC

WTPB is connected to the traveling collections, and that is something we can track. For example, there have been a total of 41 loans in Japan since lending began in 2013.

7. Please use this space to provide any additional information you would like to share about the Unit's activities for the year:

15. Division Committee Chair Review

The Division Chair has approved the 2021-2022 Annual Report

Division Chair Comments: As demonstrated by this Annual Report C&YA performs at an exceptionally high level and were worthy recipients of Special Mention in the 2022 Dynamic Unit Awards.
