About ALIPH
What is ALIPH?

- Created in March 2017, ALIPH is the main global fund exclusively dedicated to the protection of heritage in conflict and post-conflict areas.

- Private foundation under Swiss law, based in Geneva, with the privileges and immunities of an international organization (similar status to the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria).

- A public-private partnership: 20 donors, including 8 Member States (China, Cyprus, France, Kuwait, Luxembourg, Morocco, United Arab Emirates and Saudi Arabia), 7 Foundations, the European Union, Monaco, Oman, Romania, and Switzerland as host country.

- A scientific and financial instrument, supporting and accompanying heritage protection projects.

- A Startup mindset: dynamism, innovation, and responsiveness without compromising quality or rigor.
What do we do?

• ALIPH finances and accompanies cultural heritage protection
  • Where?
    • In conflict or post-conflict areas: interstate conflicts, terrorism, civil war, etc.
    • A new objective: the fight against climate change in vulnerable countries

  • When?
    • Before: preventive protection, in cases of imminent and high risk
    • During: emergency protection during conflicts, when possible
    • After: post-conflict rehabilitation, reconstruction, and restoration

  • In which fields?
    • Libraries and archives
    • Museums and their collections
    • The fight against looting and illicit trafficking
    • Intangible heritage
    • Monuments and sites

• ALIPH selects projects via 2 procedures:
  • Annual calls for projects
  • Throughout the year for emergency measures or action plans
  • Our criteria: relevance, quality, feasibility, and sustainability

Mosul, Iraq
What is the ALIPH way?

• “Protecting heritage to build peace”:
  • Thomas S. Kaplan, Chair of the ALIPH Foundation Board: “While dark threats continue to loom over this common inheritance of mankind, as in the case of terrorism and international conflicts, we and our partners shall remain – proudly and unwaveringly – by the side of these brave women and men, as humble yet critical enablers or reconciliation, and peace through the preservation, sharing, and transmission of the epic phenomenon of human civilization.”

• “Action, action, action!”:
  • Our funds are dedicated to concrete projects in the field and tangible results
  • ALIPH has demonstrated its agility in less than six years: Beirut Action Plan, Covid-19 Action Plans, Afghanistan, Ukraine Action Plan, Syria-Turkey Action Plan

• “Behind cultural heritage, there are women and men”:
  • Projects need to demonstrate significance and value for local populations and communities and must have a sustainable, social, and economic impact

➢ A new form of multilateralism: concrete, agile, responsive
