Books on the Move

First the National Library of Estonia got books to move from Estonian libraries to doorsteps across the country. Next up— books got on the move across the Internet, in all shapes and sizes. Come along on the reader’s journey!

MIRKO brings easy access to nearly 2 million books — anywhere any time. From compulsory reading to leisure literature, from physical books to their digital counterparts: audiobooks and e-publications.

Sharing is caring, they say. By using our “friend-to-friend” function users save even more resources. Up to five books can be borrowed at once, for up to 21 days. For a group of friends that makes a small sustainable library.
