October 2021:
Librarian was approached by two individual teachers looking for resources on Climate Justice and Sustainability.

City of Dublin Education and Training Board is the biggest learning provider in Dublin, Ireland, with over 3,000 staff and over 48,000 learners (primary, post-primary, further, prison, and adult education). Many are non-traditional learners.

The Curriculum Development Unit (CDU) provides support services to all staff including a one-person library. Librarian: Dr. Eva Hornung eva.hornung@cdu.cdetb.ie

Poster presented at IFLA WLIC 2023 in Rotterdam.

November 2021:
Community of Practice (CoP) for staff on Climate Change Education and Sustainability established.

OUR GOAL:
TO CREATE SUSTAINABILITY/ CLIMATE JUSTICE CHARTER FOR CITY OF DUBLIN ETB

Special purpose award level 2 in Climate Justice for learners and staff established.

Level 4 award in Environmental Sustainability Awareness (5 ECTS) for learners and staff Available from September 2023.

Summer 2023:
Survey by CoP and librarian on current initiatives across City of Dublin ETB.

During 2022:
CoP meets regularly to exchange best practice; library supports with resources and links to events and training.

Summer 2023:
Conference on sustainability and climate justice.

January 2022:
Webinar on Sustainability and Climate Justice.

Keynote by IASC - Ireland’s independent think tank on Social Change.

November 2021:
Librarian was approached by two individual teachers looking for resources on Climate Justice and Sustainability.

SMALL LIBRARY, BIG IDEAS:
SUPPORTING EDUCATION ON CLIMATE ACTION

SMALL LIBRARY, BIG IDEAS:
SUPPORTING EDUCATION ON CLIMATE ACTION